WORCESTER'S PIANO FORTES. BY the schooner Courier, we have just openin resewood cases.

It is obvious to the general judgment, upon xamination, that Worcester is unrivalled in e manutacture of this delightful and popular astrumen; indeed, they possess a richness of tone their durability and keeping in tune, we have the ullest assurance of purchasers in our own city. They fully sustain the high approbation award to them by the press and our own citizens, of artists and amateurs. Our prices will be found from 15 to 25 per cent. lower than has been usually asked for Piano Fortes in this market, and even lower than any instruments approaching them in general excellence can be purchased in the Northern cities.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10-44 P. M. U. S. SENATE.

Mr. Hannegan introduced a joint resolution o thanks to Col. Doniphan, for his famous expedi-tion into Mexico. Read twice and referred. Mr. Cass, chairman of the committee on Military Affairs, introduced a joint resolution, having for its object the presentation of medals and certificates to officers and soldiers who have distintinguished themselves in battle.

The bill to increase the medical staff of the army, was taken up and passed. The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the order of the day, to wit-the Ten Regiment Bill. Mr. Underwood being entitled to the floor spoke in opposition to the bill, as well as the war policy of the administration. Mr. Turney has the floor on this question for

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. A message was received from the Senate communicating sundry bills, which were read twice and referred to the committee of the Whole A petition was presented by Mr. King of Masachusetts, from nine thousand members of the Society of Friends, residing in six different States, praying Congress to bring the war to a close. Mr. K. moved to refer the petition to the committee on Foreign Relations, and that it be Mr. Cobb moved to lay the petition on the

Mr. King demanded the year and nays on the motion to lay on the table.

Upon this motion an animated debate ensued, in which Messrs. King, Cobb, Henly and Palrey participated. Mr. Haskell ealled for the previous question, and sustained the motion of Mr. Cobb. The question was then taken on Mr. Cobb's motion to lay on the table, and decided in the negative, yeas 81, nays 95.

The question then recurred on Mr. King's mo tion to refer the petition to the committee on For eign Relations, which was adopted-yeas 98, On motion of Mr. Marsh, the House then re olved itself into a committee of the whole, Mr. Botts in the Chair, and took up the Bill providing for a loan of $18,000,000. Mr. Marsh made a speech in opposition to the River and Kanawha Bonds, guaranteed by the Mr. Browne followed in defence of the war and the administration.

Mr. Dewer next obtained the floor, when, on motion, the committee rose, and the House ad-LARGE SUPPLY OF

PIANO FORTES NASH & WOODHOUSE, WILL RECEIVE BY THE SCHOONER GREEN-WAY, now on her passage, Seven Piano Fortes, Lost or Stolen.

A POCKET BOOK, containing about $300, and Valuable papers, was lost on the night of the 6th. December, 1847, or stolen by some one, from the subscriber, on his return from Petersburg to Halifax. The Pocket Book is made of blue embossed morocco, and contained a 100 bill on the Bank of Tennessee, which bill had been cut into two parts, and pasted with white paper, but had become divided again; two or three $10 Bills on same Bank; a $2 bill much worn, and pasted on paper, of some South Carolina Banks, and other bills on North Carolina Banks and Virginia Banks

A note for $1100, drawn in favor of John D. Rag land, and payable at the Bank of Tennessee, at Clarksville, with receipts and other papers, constituted its contents.

Any information concerning its recovery would be thankfully received, and, should it be found, the findor shall be liberally rewarded.
